

Congregation
Beth Israel
of the
Merrimack Valley

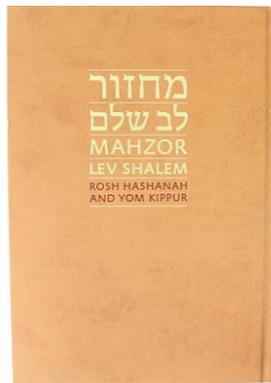

Join Us for Brunch...

Hear from Rabbi Edward Feld, Senior Editor of Mahzor Lev Shalem...

All in preparation for the upcoming High Holy Days.

This year, they're not too early, not too late, just right!

Sunday, September 10, 2017 @ 10:30am

Why Do We Need A New Mahzor?

- What has made Mahzor Lev Shalem a runaway best seller (350,000 copies sold)?
- How is it different than what has gone before and how does it present the tradition?
- How has it spoken to people of different Jewish backgrounds?
- What went into producing it?
- What were the liturgical discoveries along the way?

Rabbi Feld will share stories and insights about how this mahzor was put together, why this new prayer book seems to speak to everyone in the big tent, and how it may change your High Holy Day experience.

In addition, following Rabbi Feld's presentation with Q&A, David Tye will teach a class on "How to Blow a Shofar." The only requirement is a willingness to try, and please bring your own shofar!

There is no cost to attend ~ free and open to the public.
RSVPs are appreciated ~ walk-ins are welcome.

For more information and to RSVP, please contact Caren Jacobson, carenblair@aol.com, 978.857.2587 (call/text), or Amy Sherr, office@BethIsraelMV.org, 978.474.0540.

Congregation Beth Israel of the Merrimack Valley @Riverwalk
360 Merrimack Street, Building 5, 3rd Floor, Lawrence, MA 01843-1740
www.BethIsraelMV.org