A Jewish Perspective on Social Justice through Yiddish, Hebrew and English Songs

featuring

Yosl Kurland

Singer, Composer, and Founding Member, Wholesale Klezmer Band

Inspired by Pete Seeger as a teenager in the 1960s, Yosl's dream was to sing about peace and justice. In 1991, Pete invited him and the Wholesale Klezmer Band to do just that, in Yiddish, at the 100th anniversary of Carnegie Hall, and at subsequent concerts in our own region. In this program, Yosl will perform songs by the "sweatshop" poets, as well as his own compositions reflecting the Jewish experience in calling for justice for both workers and refugees.
